1. The Date of Status (DOS) is the date the immigrant was granted or achieved qualified immigration status. This date appears on the individual's immigration documents, e.g., the Arrival/Departure Record (I-94), the Legal Permanent Resident Card (also, Resident Alien Card or "green card") (I-551), or the Employment Authorization Card (I-688B or I-766), or may appear on other official documentation from USCIS (example: Notice of Action [I-797]). The DOS is optional for persons who are Permanently Residing Under the Color of Law (PRUCOL) (ACI = O).
Remember: An immigrant's status may change after he/she enters the country.

2. The Date Entered Country (DEC) is the date the immigrant physically entered the United States. This date appears on the Arrival/Departure Record (I-94) or may be stamped on his/her foreign passport. The DEC is optional for persons who are Permanently Residing Under the Color of Law (PRUCOL) (ACI = O), however, if available it may be entered.
