EARNED INCOME TAX CREDIT (EITC) AND OTHER TAX CREDITS FOR TAX YEAR 2006

Date: January 26, 2007	Subtopic(s): Budgeting
AUDIENCE	The information in this policy directive is for staff in all Job Centers and Non-Public Assistance (NPA) Food Stamp (FS) Offices. It is informational for all other staff.
POLICY	The Internal Revenue Service (IRS), New York State (NYS) and New York City (NYC) provide Federal, State and City tax credits, respectively, to individuals and families with low or moderate income.
BACKGROUND	There are several types of tax credits available to individuals and families with low or moderate income. The credits are an important antipoverty tool that can dramatically increase income. These credits are the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Federal EITC, New York State EITC and New York City EITC • Child Tax Credit • Child and Dependent Care Credit • Household Credit • Education Credits • Credit for Federal Telephone Excise Tax
Federal EITC, NYS EITC and NYC EITC	Individuals who qualify for the EITC and file Federal and State tax returns can receive benefits totaling more than $6,100 in combined Federal, NYS and NYC EITC. For example, a single parent earning up to $36,348 and raising more that one child in his/her home may be eligible to receive up to $6,122 in EITC.

NYC full- and part-year residents who claimed the Federal EITC may now claim a NYC EITC. They must file (or have filed) a New York State income tax return to claim the NYC EITC. This credit is in addition to the New York State EITC.

For tax year 2006, the NYC EITC is equal to five percent of the allowable Federal EITC. (For part-year residents, the amount of the credit is subject to proration.)

The maximum EITCs for tax year 2006 are:

Two or more children	$4,536 (Federal) + $1,360 (State) + $226 (City) = $6,122
One child	$2,747 (Federal) + $824 (State) + $137 (City) = $3,708
No children	$412 (Federal) + $123 (State) + $20 (City) = $555

The qualifying income limits for the EITCs have increased as follows:

Two or more qualifying children	$36,348 (or $38,348 if married filing jointly)
One qualifying child	$32,001 (or $34,001 if married filing jointly)
No qualifying children	$12,120 (or $14,120 if married filing jointly)

Federal EITC Payment Options

There are two ways to receive the Federal EITC:

- Federal EITC Advance Payment
- Lump-Sum Year-End EITC

Federal EITC Advance Payment

The Federal EITC Advance Payment option allows some wage earners who are raising one or more children to get part of their Federal EITC in their paychecks throughout the year and part in a check from the IRS after they file their Federal tax return. To apply for the Federal EITC Advance, applicants/participants must complete IRS Form W-5: Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate, and submit it to their employer. Form W-5 must be submitted each year to continue receiving the Federal EITC Advance Payment.

Federal Lump-Sum Year-End EITC

The Federal EITC may be claimed when annual tax returns are submitted at the end of the year. It is important to note that in order to claim the EITC, an income tax return must be filed even if no taxes are owed.

NYS and NYC Lump-Sum Year-End EITC	The NYS EITC and NYC EITC may only be received by filing a NYS tax return at the end of the year and claiming the State EITC and NYC EITC. There is no Advance Payment option for the State EITC or NYC EITC.
Retroactive EITC	An applicant/participant may be eligible for retroactive EITC, up to three years prior to the current tax year. This applies to Federal, State and NYC EITC.
	In order to request retroactive Federal, State or NYC EITC, an income tax return must have been filed for the year(s) the applicant/participant is requesting the retroactive credit. If returns were not filed, it is necessary to file an income tax return for the year(s) and submit them along with the request for retroactive EITC.
	Since the amounts of the NYS EITC and NYC EITC are based on the Federal credit, the applicant/participant need only complete and submit State Form IT-215: Claim for Earned Income Credit , along with a copy of the prior year(s) NYS income tax return(s). To obtain transcripts of prior year NYS tax returns and State Form IT-215 , the applicant/participant should call the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (800) 462-8100.
	For further information on retroactive eligibility, the applicant/participant should call the IRS at (800) 829-1040 for Federal EITC and the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (800) 462-8100 for NYS EITC or NYC EITC.
Penalty for Fraudulent or Improper EITC Claims	An improper claim resulting from reckless or intentional disregard of IRS rules and regulations may cause a denial of future EITC for two years; fraudulent claims may result in not being allowed to file for EITC for the next 10 years.
Child Tax Credit	The Child Tax Credit, worth up to $1,000 for each qualifying child, is a nonrefundable credit used to reduce the amount of tax owed and may be claimed on the individual's Federal tax return. However, if the child tax credit exceeds the amount of tax owed, the taxpayer may claim the difference as an Additional Child Tax Credit, which is a refundable credit, and may be claimed by filing Federal Form 8812: Additional Child Tax Credit , with his/her Federal taxes.

Child and Dependent Care Credit	Individuals who pay for child care so they can work or look for work may be able to claim some of these expenses as a credit on their Federal and State tax returns. Individuals must first qualify for the Federal credit before claiming the refundable State credit. The Federal credit may be claimed on the individual's Federal tax return, while the State credit may be claimed by filing State Form IT-216: Claim for Child and Dependent Care Credit .
Household Credit	A Household Credit of up to $75, plus up to $15 for each Federal exemption claimed, is available to individuals who are married, a head of household or a qualifying widow/widower with a dependent child whose income is $32,000 or less and who cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person's Federal return. Single filers with incomes up to $28,000 can also qualify. NYC residents are eligible for an additional New York City Household Credit. These credits may be claimed directly on the NYS tax return.
Education Credits	There are two Federal education credits that may be claimed for each eligible student by completing Federal Form 8863: Education Credits (Hope and Lifetime Learning Credits): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hope Credit: This credit applies to the first two taxable years of postsecondary education. $1,650 is the maximum credit per student that may be claimed. • Lifetime Learning Credit: This credit is based on the total of qualified education expenses. The maximum credit is $2,000 per year. In addition, a college tuition credit of up to $400 is available to an eligible full-year resident of New York State if s/he paid qualified college tuition expenses to an institution of higher education on behalf of an eligible student. Alternatively, a New York college tuition itemized deduction may be claimed. This credit or deduction may be claimed on State Form IT-272: Claim for College Tuition Credit or Itemized Deduction.
Credit for Federal Telephone Excise Tax	The Credit for Federal Telephone Excise Tax may be claimed on a new line on the 2006 Federal income tax return. Individuals not required to file an individual income tax return may claim the refund on a new short form, IRS Form 1040EZ-T: Request for Refund of Federal Telephone Excise Tax . The refund amount is $30 for one Federal exemption, $40 for two, $50 for three and $60 for four or more.

The government might owe YOU thousands of dollars at tax time. If you earn less than $38,000, you may qualify for the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC).

El gobierno podría estar DEBIÉNDOLE miles de dólares al momento de declarar sus impuestos. Si gana menos de $38,000, usted podría calificar para el Crédito de Impuesto por Ingreso Ganado (EITC).

Dial 311 or visit www.nyc.gov/eitc to learn where you can file your taxes for FREE. In some cases, sites will help you claim important benefits besides the EITC.

Marque 311 para que se informe sobre dónde puede preparar su declaración de impuestos GRATIS. En algunos casos, los sitios podrían ayudarle a reclamar importantes beneficios aparte del EITC.

Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Frequently Asked Questions

Spanish

The government owes ME money? The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) is a federal, state, and New York City refundable tax credit for qualifying working families and individuals. So, even though you don't owe the government, if you qualify, THE GOVERNMENT OWES YOU!

So, do I qualify? Regardless of whether your income is from full-time, part-time, or self-employment work, you likely qualify if:

- You have dependent children and your household income is less than $38,000.
- You are age 25 through 64, have no children, and earn less than $14,000.

How much money can I get back? Up to $6,000! The average combined EITC credit is more than $2,500—and you can file for three years back if you didn't claim the EITC before.

How do I get my money? Just file your taxes and claim the EITC. And claiming the EITC will usually not affect your eligibility for other benefits like food stamps, housing vouchers, public assistance, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Medicaid.

And someone will do my taxes for FREE? Yes. Simply Dial 311 to learn where NYC EITC Coalition partners will prepare taxes for free for qualifying New Yorkers at locations in every borough.

How can I get my refund quickly? If you have a bank account and file electronically, you can arrange for direct deposit of your refund in as little as 10 business days. If you don't have a bank account yet, visit www.nyc.gov/eitc to learn about opening a low or no-fee account at a bank or credit union in your area.

¿El gobierno me debe dinero? El Crédito de Impuesto por Ingreso Ganado (EITC) es un crédito federal, estatal y de la Ciudad de Nueva York que es reembolsable para las personas y las familias trabajadoras que califican. Así que, aún si no le debe al gobierno, si califica, ¡EL GOBIERNO LE DEBE A USTED!

Entonces, ¿califico? Aunque su ingreso provenga de un trabajo de tiempo completo, de tiempo parcial o de su autoempleo, es posible que usted califique si:

- Usted tiene hijos dependientes y el ingreso de su hogar es menos de $38,000.
- Su edad está entre 25 hasta 64 años, no tiene hijos, y gana menos de $14,000.

¿Cuánto dinero puedo recibir? ¡Hasta $6,000! El promedio del crédito combinado del EITC es de más de $2,500—y usted puede solicitar por los tres años previos si no reclamó el EITC antes.

¿Cómo reclamo mi dinero? Simplemente declare sus impuestos y reclame el EITC. Reclamar el EITC usualmente no afectará su elegibilidad para recibir otros beneficios como cupones de comida o vales de vivienda, asistencia pública, ingreso suplementario del seguro social (SSI), y Medicaid.

¿Y alguien puede preparar mis impuestos GRATIS? Sí. Simplemente Marque 311 para que se informe sobre dónde los socios de la Coalición NYC EITC preparan las declaraciones de impuestos gratis a los neoyorquinos que califican en todos los condados.

¿Cómo puedo recibir mi reembolso rápidamente? Si tiene una cuenta de banco y declara sus impuestos electrónicamente, usted puede gestionar un depósito directo para recibir su reembolso en tan solo 10 días laborales. Si usted no tiene una cuenta de banco todavía, visite la página www.nyc.gov/eitc para que aprenda cómo abrir una cuenta con tarifa baja o sin tarifa en un banco o unión de crédito en su zona.
