IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING FOOD STAMP WORK REQUIREMENTS

As a food stamp participant, you may be required to participate in employment activities. If we determine that you are required to take part in a work activity, you will be assigned to an employment program.

The Human Resources Administration (HRA) is offering you the opportunity to select a program from the list attached to this notice. These programs are available to assist you with finding a job or, if you are working, to help you move to another job where you may earn more money.

These programs assist food stamp participants and are ready to provide you with the skills and services that could help train you for a job or connect you with an employer. There is no charge to you for enrolling in these programs.

HRA urges you to choose a program that is convenient for you from the list. You should visit that program during the hours listed and begin working with that provider.

Good luck in your job search.
