POLICY DIRECTIVE #06-11-ELI (This Policy Directive Replaces PD #06-02-ELI)

EARNED INCOME TAX CREDIT (EITC) AND OTHER TAX CREDITS FOR THE TAX YEAR 2005

Date: April 27, 2006	Subtopic(s): Budgeting
AUDIENCE	The information in this policy directive is for staff in all Job Centers and Non-Public Assistance (NPA) Food Stamp (FS) Offices. It is informational for all other staff.
REVISIONS TO ORIGINAL PROCEDURE	This policy directive has been revised to inform staff that Federal and State EITC are excluded as a resource for food stamp (FS) purposes as long as the EITC amount is identifiable.
POLICY	The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) provides Federal and State tax credits to individuals and families with low or moderate income. These tax credits are referred to as Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), Child Tax Credit (CTC) and Education Credits.
Revised information	Federal and State EITC are excluded as income and resources for both public assistance (PA) and food stamps as long as the EITC amount remains identifiable.

HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS PROCEDURE?
Call 718-557-1313 then press 2 at the prompt followed by 765 or send an e-mail to FIA Call Center

BACKGROUND

There are several types of tax credits that are available to individuals and families with low or moderate income. The credits are an important antipoverty tool that can dramatically increase income. These credits are the:

- Federal EITC and State EITC
- Child Tax Credit
- Education Credits

Federal EITC and State EITC

Individuals who qualify for the EITC and file Federal and State tax returns can receive benefits of over $5,000. For example, a single parent earning up to $35,263 and raising more than one child in his/her home may be eligible to receive up to $5,720 in EITC.

The maximum EITCs for tax year 2005 are:

Two or more children	$4,400 (Federal) + $1,320 (State) = $5,720
One child	$2,662 (Federal) + $798 (State) = $3,460
No children	$399 (Federal) + $119 (State) = $518

The qualifying income limits for the EITCs have increased as follows:

Two or more qualifying children	$35,263 (or $37,263 if married)
One qualifying child	$31,030 (or $33,030 if married)
No qualifying children	$11,750 (or $13,750 if married)

Federal EITC Payment Options

There are two ways to receive the Federal EITC:

- Federal EITC Advance Payment
- Lump-Sum Year-End EITC

Federal EITC Advance Payment

The Federal EITC Advance Payment option allows some wage earners who are raising one or more children to get part of their Federal EITC in their paychecks throughout the year and part in a check from the IRS after they file their Federal tax return. To apply for the Federal EITC Advance, applicants/participants must complete IRS Form W-5: Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate, and submit it to their employer.

Federal Lump-Sum Year-End EITC

The Federal EITC may be claimed when annual tax returns are submitted at the end of the year. It is important to note that in order to claim the EITC, an income tax return must be filed even if no taxes are owed.

State Lump-Sum
Year-End EITC

The State EITC may only be received by filing a New York State tax return at the end of the year and claiming the State EITC. There is no Advance Payment option for the State EITC.

Retroactive EITC

An applicant/participant may be eligible for retroactive EITC, up to three years prior to the current tax year. This applies to both Federal and State EITC.

In order to request retroactive Federal or State EITC, an income tax return must have been filed for the year(s) the applicant/participant is requesting the retroactive credit. If returns were not filed, it is necessary to file an income tax return for the year(s) and submit them along with the request for retroactive EITC.

Since the amount of the State EITC is based on the Federal credit, the applicant/participant need only complete and submit State Form IT-215: Claim for Earned Income Credit, along with a copy of the prior year(s) New York State (NYS) income tax return(s). To obtain transcripts of prior year NYS tax returns and State Form IT-215, the applicant/participant should call the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (800) 462-8100.

For further information on retroactive eligibility, the applicant/participant should call the IRS at (800) 829-1040 for Federal EITC and the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (800) 462-8100 for State EITC.

Penalty for Fraud or Improper EITC
Claims

An improper claim resulting from reckless or intentional disregard of IRS rules and regulations may cause a denial of future EITC for two years; fraudulent claims may result in not being allowed to file for EITC for the next 10 years.

Child Tax Credit

The Child Tax Credit, worth up to $1,000 for each qualifying child, is a nonrefundable credit used to reduce the amount of tax owed and may be claimed on the individual's Federal tax return. However, if the child tax credit exceeds the amount of tax owed, the taxpayer may claim the difference as an Additional Child Tax Credit, which is a refundable credit, and may be claimed by filing Federal Form 8812: Additional Child Tax Credit, with his/her Federal taxes.

Education Credits      There are two education credits that may be claimed for each eligible student by completing Federal Form 8863: Education Credits (Hope and Lifetime Learning Credits):

- Hope Credit: This credit applies to the first two taxable years of postsecondary education. $1,500 is the maximum credit per student that may be claimed.
- Lifetime Learning Credit: This credit is based on the total of qualified education expenses. The maximum credit is $1,000 per year.

Free Tax Assistance      Free tax assistance centers are provided in various locations in all five boroughs.

REQUIRED ACTION

Workers at Job Centers and NPA FS Offices must inform all potentially eligible applicants/participants about the availability of EITC, CTC and education credits and advise them to seek further information and guidance by utilizing the following resources:

- Internal Revenue Service/Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) at (800) 829-1040
- New York State Taxpayer Information at (800) 225-5829
- Department of Consumer Affairs at (212) 487-4444

See PB #05-142-OPE

In addition, the Department of Consumer Affairs EITC brochure “Your EITC Money is Waiting for You!” and the VITA Site Information Directory (see Attachment A) must be given to applicants/participants during any applicant/participant contact. The brochure provides information on the tax benefits of the EITC while the directory contains a listing of VITA sites throughout New York City. The VITA Site Information Directory will be sent to Job Centers and NPA FS Offices under separate cover.

PROGRAM IMPLICATIONS

Model Office Implications      There are no Model Office implications.

Paperless Office System (POS) Implications      There are no POS implications.

Food Stamp Implications

Federal and State EITC are excluded as income in the month it is received and as a resource as long as the EITC amount remains identifiable.

Medicaid Implications

EITC is not counted as income for Medicaid and is not counted as a resource for Medicaid in the month the EITC payment is received or in the following month.

LIMITED ENGLISH SPEAKING ABILITY (LESA) AND HEARING IMPAIRED IMPLICATIONS

For Limited English Speaking Ability (LESA) applicants/participants, make sure to obtain appropriate interpreter services in accordance with Policy Directive #05-37-OPE. For hearing-impaired applicants/participants, make sure to obtain appropriate interpreter services in accordance with Policy Directive #05-40-OPE.

FAIR HEARING IMPLICATIONS

There are no Fair Hearing implications.
