(This Policy Directive Obsoletes PD #13-03-ELI and PB #12-05-ELI)

EARNED INCOME TAX CREDIT (EITC) AND OTHER TAX CREDITS FOR TAX YEAR 2013

Date: February 18, 2014	Subtopic(s): Tax Credits
AUDIENCE	The instructions in this policy directive are for staff in all Job Centers and Non Cash Assistance (NCA) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Centers and are informational for all other staff.
POLICY	The Federal government, New York State (NYS), and New York City (NYC) provide various tax credits that aid families and individuals with low to moderate income by reducing their tax liability. Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) refunds must be excluded as income and resources for the purposes of Cash Assistance (CA), Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) eligibility.
BACKGROUND	There are several Federal, NYS, and NYC tax credits available to families and individuals with low to moderate income. These tax credits are an important tool in the reduction of poverty and they provide a source of additional income for their recipients. Some of the available tax credits are refundable, in that if the credit exceeds the amount of tax owed, the balance is returned to the taxpayer in the form of a tax credit. The following tax credits are currently available to NYC residents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Federal EITC, NYS EITC, and NYC EITC • Noncustodial Parent NYS EITC • Federal Child Tax Credit and NYS Empire State Child Credit • Federal, NYS, and NYC Child and Dependent Care Credits • NYS and NYC Household Credits • American Opportunity and Lifetime Learning Credits • NYC School Tax Credit

Income Requirements	Federal, NYS, and NYC EITCs are refundable tax credits available to low income wage earners (including the self-employed). In order to be eligible for an EITC, an individual must have worked full- or part-time at some point during the previous tax year. Individuals filing for an EITC must not have investment income greater than $3,300. Individuals will only receive an EITC refund if the EITC credit exceeds the amount of taxes owed. The federal EITC can be claimed by filing the IRS Schedule EIC with a Form 1040 or a Form 1040A, or by completing the IRS EIC Worksheet for Form 1040EZ. Full- and part-year residents of NYC who claim a federal EITC may also be eligible for NYS and NYC EITCs. The NYS Claim for Earned Income Credit (IT-215) form must be completed and filed along with either the NYS Full-Year Resident Income Tax Return (IT-201) or the Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return (IT-203) in order to claim the NYS and NYC EITCs. The NYS EITC is equal to 30% of the allowable federal EITC for tax year 2013. The NYC EITC is equal to 5% of the allowable Federal EITC for tax year 2013. For part-year NYC residents, the amount of EITC is adjusted based on the amount of income received in the NYC residency period. Note: An individual must claim the federal earned income credit for 2013 on his/her federal tax return to qualify to claim the NYS and NYC EITC.
Increased tax benefits	Individuals who file federal and State tax returns and qualify for EITCs may receive benefits totaling more than $8,100. For example, a single parent with three or more qualifying children living in his/her home may be eligible to receive up to $8,159 in combined City, State, and federal EITCs (see the tax credit table on the next page).
Qualifying Child Rules.	Note: “Qualifying children” for EITCs are children who lived with the individual claiming the credit for more than one-half of the tax year. For detailed information regarding the criteria for qualifying child rules visit http://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Qualifying-Child-Rules.

Increased income limits Earned income and adjusted gross income (AGI) for the 2013 tax year must each be less than the following:

Number of Qualifying Children	Single or Head of Household	Married, filing jointly
Three or more	$ 46,227	$ 51,567
Two	$ 43,038	$ 48,378
One	$ 37,870	$ 43,210
No children	$ 14,340	$ 19,680

Increased tax credits The maximum EITC amounts for the 2013 tax year are:

Number of Qualifying Children	Federal	State	City	Total
Three or more	$ 6,044	$ 1,813	$ 302	$ 8,159
Two	$ 5,372	$ 1,612	$ 269	$ 7,253
One	$ 3,250	$ 975	$ 163	$ 4,388
No children	$ 487	$ 146	$ 24	$ 657

Retroactive EITC

Persons who did not claim an EITC during the previous tax years may be eligible for retroactive EITC payments. In 2014, retroactive federal, NYS, and NYC EITCs may be claimed for tax years 2012, 2011, and 2010. An income tax return must be filed for each year a retroactive Federal, NYS, or NYC EITC is requested.

Those who filed a federal income tax return but did not claim the federal EITC must file an Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return (Form 1040X) and attach it to the copy of the tax return from the year for which the credit is being claimed.

Those who did not file a federal income tax return for the tax year he/she is submitting a retroactive federal EITC claim must file his or her taxes using the appropriate forms for that tax year in addition to filing the Form 1040X.

Those who filed a NYS income tax return but did not claim the NYS and NYC EITCs must file the Claim for Earned Income Credit (Form IT-215) along with a copy of the NYS income tax return, either the Form IT-201 or Form IT-203, from the tax year(s) for which the EITCs are being claimed.

Those who did not file a NYS income tax return for the tax year he/she is submitting retroactive NYS and NYC EITCs claims must file his or her NYS taxes using the appropriate forms for that tax year in addition to filing the Form IT-215.

To obtain a copy of Form IT-215 or transcripts of prior NYS tax returns, individuals should call the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (518) 457-5431.

For further information about retroactive eligibility, the individual may call the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) at (800) 829-1040 (for information about the Federal EITC) and/or the NYS Department of Taxation and Finance at (518) 457-5431 (for information about the NYS EITC or the NYC EITC).

EITC for Child-only Cases

CA and/or SNAP households with “child-only” cases, in which the payee is a grandparent or other relative with earned income, may be EITC eligible. The children in these cases often meet the definition of qualifying children for an EITC, making the payee eligible to receive Federal, NYS, and NYC EITCs.

New Information

In such cases in which the payee has earned income, the JOS/Worker must make these payees aware of their potential eligibility for the EITCs and to refer them to the IRS website or to a local Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) site, if one is available.

Noncustodial Parent
NYS EITC

The NYS Noncustodial Parent (NCP) EITC addresses the needs of low-income NCPs who are at least 18 years of age. The credit supplements the earnings of qualified NCPs, which can help them become more involved in the economic and social well-being of their children. To be qualified, a noncustodial parent must:

- not have claimed NYS EITC (Form IT-215);
- be a full-year New York resident taxpayer;
- be at least 18 years of age;
- be a noncustodial parent and have a child(ren) that does not reside with him/her;
- have a child support order through a NYS Child Support Collection Unit (SCU) for at least one-half year; and
- have paid 100% of the current amount of child support due for any tax year in which the NCP EITC is claimed.

In order to receive the credit, an individual must attach the Claim for Noncustodial Parent New York State Earned Income Credit (Form IT-209) along with their NYS tax return (Form IT-201).

Note: The amount of EITC received by a noncustodial parent has no effect on the amount of EITC a custodial parent receives.

Penalty for Improper or Fraudulent EITC Claims

An improper claim resulting from reckless or intentional disregard of IRS rules and regulations may lead to a two-year denial of federal, NYS, and NYC EITCs and in subsequent years, a special request form must be filed to apply for the right to claim the EITCs. Fraudulent EITC claims may lead to a 10-year denial of federal, NYS, and NYC EITCs.

Federal Child Tax Credit

The Federal Child Tax Credit, worth up to $1,000 for each qualifying child under the age of 17, is a non-refundable credit used to reduce the amount of tax owed and may be claimed on the individual's Federal tax return. If the Federal Child Tax Credit exceeds the amount of tax actually owed, the taxpayer may claim the difference in the form of an Additional Child Tax Credit.

Additional Child Tax Credit

The Additional Child Tax Credit is a refundable credit which may be claimed by filing the IRS Additional Child Tax Credit (Form 8812) along with a Federal income tax return. The minimum earned income amount used to calculate the Additional Child Tax Credit is $3,000 for the 2013 tax year.

NYS Empire State Child Credit

The NYS Empire State Child Credit is a refundable tax credit that can be claimed for each child age 4 through 16. Taxpayers who claimed the Federal Child Tax Credit for children age 4 through 16 can claim an Empire State Tax Credit equal to the greater of:

- $100 times the number of children age 4 through 16 who qualified for the Federal Child Tax Credit; or
- 33% of the taxpayer's Federal Child Tax Credit for children ages 4 through 16.

Eligible taxpayers who did not claim the Federal Child Tax Credit can claim an Empire State Child Tax Credit equal to $100 times the number of qualifying children. Individuals must file the Claim for Empire State Child Credit (Form IT-213) to claim this credit.

Working families can claim both the Federal Child Tax Credit and the NYS Empire State Child Credit in addition to the EITCs.

Child and Dependent Care Credits

Federal, NYS, and NYC Child and Dependent Care credits cover child care and dependent care expenses. These credits are awarded to individuals who pay for the care of a child, spouse, or adult dependent (incapable of caring for him or herself) while the taxpayer works or actively seeks employment.

Federal Child and Dependent Care Credit The Federal Child and Dependent Care expenses credit is non-refundable. It can be worth up to $1,050 for families with one child or dependent in care and up to $2,100 for families with more than one child or dependent in care. Expenses covered under the federal credit must be for:

- dependent qualifying child(ren) who was under the age of 13 when the care was provided, and lived with the filer for more than half of the year;
- a spouse or dependent who is physically or mentally incapable of self-care and who has the same residence as the filer for more than half of the year; or
- a child for whom the filer could not claim as a dependent because of the rules for Children of divorced or separated parents.

New Information

Note: The paid care provider can not be a spouse, parent of a qualifying child(ren) under 13, or a person the filer can claim as a dependent on his/her federal or NYS income tax return.

The federal credit may be claimed by filing the IRS Child and Dependent Care Expenses (Form 2441) and attaching it to IRS tax return filed (either Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040NR).

NYS Child and Dependent Care Credit

The NYS Child and Dependent Care Credit is a refundable tax credit worth up to $1,155 for families with one child or dependent in care and up to $2,310 for families with more than one child or dependent in care. Expenses covered by this credit must be for children who were under age 13, and lived with the filer for more than six months, or for disabled dependants during the tax year for which it is being claimed.

The NYC Child and Dependent Care Credit is also a refundable tax credit. This credit covers child care expenses for children who were under the age of four on December 31, 2013. Individuals who do not qualify for the Federal Child and Dependent Care credit are not eligible for the NYS and the NYC credits. The NYS and NYC credits are to be claimed on the NYS Claim for Child and Dependent Care Credit Form (IT-216) and filed with the taxpayer's IT-201 or IT-203.

To apply for these education tax credits individuals must complete IRS Education Credits (American Opportunity and Lifetime Learning Credits [Form 8863]) and file it along with IRS Form 1040 or Form 1040A. NYS College Tuition Credit/Itemized Deduction

In addition to the American Opportunity and Lifetime Learning credit, a college tuition credit or itemized deduction is available to full-year residents of NYS if they paid qualified college tuition expenses to an institution of higher education for themselves, their spouse or their dependent(s) and that person qualifies as an eligible student.

The college tuition credit is limited to $400 per eligible student and is a refundable credit. Alternatively, the college tuition itemized deduction of up to $10,000 may be claimed for each eligible student if the taxpayer itemized their deductions on their federal return.

The college tuition credit or itemized deduction may be claimed by filing the NYS Claim for College Tuition Credit or Itemized Deduction (Form IT-272).

Note: Only expenses for undergraduate enrollment or attendance qualify for the college tuition credit or itemized deduction.

NYC School Tax Credit

The NYC School Tax Credit is a refundable credit available to individuals residing in NYC who cannot be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's federal income tax return and have total income up to $250,000. Individuals can claim the NYC School Tax Credit directly on the NYS Full-Year Resident Income Tax Return (Form IT-201), or on the Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return (Form IT-203).

Individuals should only use the Claim for New York City School Tax Credit (Form NYC-210) to claim the NYC School Tax Credit if they do not file a tax return using Form IT-201 or Form IT-203.

Note: Effective for tax years 2011 and after, the NYS Resident Income Tax Return (Form IT-150) has been discontinued. All full-year residents of NYS should use Form IT-201.

NYS Tax Refund Debit Card

On the NYS income tax return, filers may choose to receive their personal income tax refund via the NYS Tax Refund Debit Card. This state-administered prepaid card enables filers to avoid check cashing fees and is a useful option for those who do not have bank accounts. There is no charge for in-network ATM cash withdrawals or purchases, or to remove cash from the card in one bank teller transaction. Refunds on direct deposit and paper check are still available.
