Chapter 505 - Managed Care
[Assembly 7754-A by the Committee on Rules,
at the request of the Department of Social Services]

Authorizes the Department of Social Services (Department) to seek a waiver of paragraph 30 of subdivision (a) of Section 1902 of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (SSA), only to the extent necessary to share savings with managed care providers. Paragraph 30 provides for methods and procedures to safeguard against unnecessary medical care and services; assures that payments for medical care and services are consistent with efficiency, economy and quality of care; and ensure that a sufficient number of providers are enrolled in the Medical Assistance (MA) program. These methods and procedures include screening admissions to hospitals, intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded and mental hospitals; reviewing admissions to these facilities; and independent and external reviewing of the quality of services furnished by health maintenance organizations. Requires the approval of the Director of the Division of the Budget before the Department could apply for such a waiver.

Effective Date: July 26, 1993

Chapter 537 - Long Term Home Health Care Program
[Senate 723-B by Senator Tully]

Extends until December 31, 1995, a demonstration program that permits "persons with special needs" to receive Long Term Home Health Care Program services at home if the average costs of these services, although estimated to exceed 75 percent of the residential health care facility rate, would not exceed 100 percent of the RHCF rate. As defined by Section 367-c(3-a) of the Social Services Law, "persons with special needs" include persons who either need certain care, such as respiratory therapy, insulin therapy or tube feeding, or have certain conditions, such as a mental disability, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome or Alzheimer's disease.

Statutes Involved:

L. 1986, C. 629, sect. 3, amended

Effective Date: July 28, 1993

Chapter 638 - Viatical Settlement Agreements
[Senate 5303-A by Senator Velella]

Regulates those companies which offer to purchase life insurance benefits from terminally ill people and provide the policyholders with monies to assist in the payment of rent, medical care and other essential items or services not covered by other insurance. The Chapter also exempts an option to enter into a viatical settlement from consideration as an available resource in determining a person's eligibility for Medical Assistance.

Effective Date: June 1, 1993

Chapter 100 - Person in Need of Supervision
[Senate 361-A by Senator Padavan]

Permits the family court, in the interest of justice, to dismiss a petition to adjudicate a child as a person in need of supervision (PINS) on the basis that the petitioner has not provided reasonable assistance to the probation service in its efforts to adjust the case successfully through the provision of services designed to eliminate the need for the PINS petition to be pursued in court.

Statutes Involved:

Family Court Act
Section 751, amended

Effective Date: September 12, 1993

Chapter 108 - Adoption of Children
[Assembly 5789-A by Mr. Cahill, et al.]

Permits an authorized agency to consent to the adoption of a child whose care and custody have been transferred to the agency by a court order in a child protective proceeding or by a voluntary placement agreement when both parents of the child are deceased or one parent is deceased and the other parent is not entitled to notice of the adoption proceeding.

Statutes Involved:

Family Court Act
Section 113, amended

Effective Date: October 12, 1993

Chapter 133 - Placement of Siblings
[Assembly 4856-A by Mr. Towns, et al.]

Permits the consolidation of proceedings to terminate parental rights concerning siblings and half-siblings in foster care.

Statutes Involved:

Effective Date: September 19, 1993

Chapter 148 - Use of School Buildings
for Child Services
[Senate 2243-A by Senator Saland]

Permits the use of school buildings for child care services during school hours for children of students attending the school and, if space is available, for children of school employees. Each school district's board of education would determine whether or not such services would be provided.

Statutes Involved:

Education Law
Section 414, subd. 1, para. (i), amended

Effective Date: June 28, 1993

Chapter 201 - Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children [Senate 1938 by Senator Mega, at the request of the Department of Law]

Eliminates the authority of members of Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (SPCC) to act as attorneys without being admitted to the practice of law and requires SPCCs to be represented by attorneys when prosecuting complaints before courts; limits the prosecutorial and peace officer activities of SPCCs to activities related to the prevention of child abuse, maltreatment and neglect as defined in the Social Services Law and the Family Court Act and the prevention of the exploitation or harm of children through the violation of specific provisions of the Penal Law; and amends current requirements relating to the approval of proposed certificates of incorporation of SPCCs and the residency of members of SPCCs located in New York City.

Statutes Involved:

Effective Date: September 4, 1993

Chapter 292 - Homerebuilders Demonstration Project
[Senate 5860 by Senator Saland]

Authorizes the Department of Social Services (Department) to conduct a three year demonstration project to test the effectiveness of establishing capitated rates of payment for foster care. The demonstration project would be entitled the Homerebuilders demonstration project. The demonstration project would have the goal of demonstrating how innovative methods to fund foster care programs may result in the discharge of children to safe, suitable permanent homes in a more timely manner at no additional expense to State or local governments through service continuity, intensified discharge planning, pre-adoption services, after-care services and/or post-adoption services. The Department's authority to conduct the demonstration project would be contingent upon the availability of federal financial participation and the approval of the Division of the Budget.

Statutes Involved:

Social Services Law
Section 398-a, subd. 4, added

Effective Date: July 21, 1993

Chapter 294 - Adoption of Foster Children [Assembly 7190-A by Ms. Hill, et al.,
at the request of the Governor]

Requires the attorney for an authorized agency seeking the approval of a surrender of a child for adoption, upon the court's order approving such surrender, to serve notice of entry of the court's order promptly upon persons who have been approved by the authorized agency as the child's adoptive parents. In addition, the attorney for the authorized agency must advise such persons that they may commence an adoption proceeding. The authorized agency which approved the persons as the child's adoptive parents must advise such persons of the procedures necessary for the adoption of the child and must cooperate in the provision of necessary documentation to such persons. The Chapter places these same obligations upon the attorney for or petitioning authorized agency and upon the authorized agency when the court transfers custody and guardianship of a child to an authorized agency.

The Chapter also requires the Chief Administrator of the Courts to establish by rule time frames for the calendaring and disposition of adoption proceedings. In addition, the Chapter requires a court, upon the filing of required documents, to schedule the proceeding, in accordance with the rules established by Chief Administrator of the Courts, to determine whether there is an adequate basis to approve the adoption. If there is an adequate basis for approval, the appearance of the adoptive parents and the child would be calendared for the approval of the adoption petition. This Chapter also authorizes a court to direct further hearings, submissions or appearances and proceedings if the court finds that there is not adequate basis for approval of the adoption petition. The Chief Administrator of the Courts would be required to report by the thirty-first day of December of each year to the Governor and the Legislature concerning the implementation and the impact of the rules established for the calendaring and disposition of adoption proceedings.
