(not available on-line)

Attached for your information is a copy of the Department's 1995 Annual Report on the Domestic Violence Prevention Act (Chapter 838 of the Laws of 1987).

As demonstrated by the Domestic Violence Prevention Act, New York State has historically been in the forefront in addressing the complex issues surrounding domestic violence. The goals of the original legislation were expanded by the Aid to Localities Budgets of 1991 through 1995. Together, these laws have ensured the viability of programs designed to provide safe and secure shelter and services for victims of domestic violence and their children.

Implementation of the Domestic Violence Prevention Act required the Department to undertake a multitude of activities in support of local district and domestic violence service providers. The attached report describes the benefits that have been realized as a result of the Act.
